2 x CDs	The Music of South Africa. What is South Africa Really Like (PPT)
Plastic Bowl	Used for washing. Rural homes collect rainwater as few have piped water to their location/village.
Stainless Steel Bowl	This has a wide range of uses eg. Washing and cooking.
Football	Made by children from plastic bags and maize meal sacks.
Enamel Mug & Plate	At mealtimes, children in rural areas and some towns tend to eat and drink from enamel rather than china. Enamel is often for every day use in rural locations and the china is 'kept for best'.
Wooden Spoon	Every home will have a number of these. Used for making porridge/mealie pap and accompanying dishes.
Brush	A lot of pride goes into keeping homes clean and tidy. All homes and schools will use brushes made from locally available grasses as well as shop-bought dustpan & brush sets.
5 x Silk Scarves	Married women in rural areas wear these at home or when going out. Known as a Dhuk
5 x Fabric Pieces	Traditional prints that are made into dresses/smocks. These are worn mostly by elder women and those in Eastern Cape /Lesotho.
2 x Dolls	Fabric doll with multi-coloured outfit made by a women's self-help group. Bead doll from Monkeybiz South Africa.
